

IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT PATNA
Cr.Misc. No.56150 of 2007
PREM SAGAR SHARMA
Versus
STATE OF BIHAR

5 16.05.2008 Heard both sides.

The petitioner seeks anticipatory bail in a case in which the Court below has taken cognizance under sections 379, 341, 342, 323, 504/34 of I.P.C.

As per allegation, the petitioner tried to snatch a sum of Rs. 65,000/- from the complainant and tried to flee away from the scene. It is further alleged that the son of the complainant was also captivated . However, subsequently he was released as the villagers put pressure.

Counsel for the petitioner submits that the dispute between the complainant and the petitioner is with regard to the negotiation of marriage. Referring to the statement made in paragraph no. 10, it has been submitted that the petitioner had lodged earlier a case on 25.4.2006 against the complainant under sections 406, 420, 504/34 of I.P.C. The certified copy of the F.I.R. has been produced before this Court which has also been perused by learned A.P.P.

From the pleadings on record, this Court is of the view that there was a genuine dispute between the parties over non finalization of marriage between the daughter of the petitioner and son of informant.

In the facts and circumstances of the case, the prayer of anticipatory bail is allowed. In the event of arrest or surrender in the Court below within a period of four weeks, petitioner Prem Sagar Sharma will be released on bail on furnishing bail bond of Rs. 10,000/- (ten thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of Addl. Chief Judicial Magistrate, Hilsa, Nalanda in connection with Complaint case no. 194(C)/2006.
